ORDER EXTENDING DEADLINE TO FILE ANSWER AND TO FILE JOINT PROPOSED SCHEDULING ORDER

Currently pending is Defendants' Unopposed Motion to Stay Proceedings, (ECF 80), which requests that this Court stay proceedings in the case while the Fifth Circuit considers Defendants' interlocutory appeal of the United States District Judge's decision granting Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction. (See ECF 79). Because the Motion to Stay Proceedings, (ECF 80), arises out of an appeal of the United States District Judge's decision, the undersigned will not make a determination on that Motion.

Although the Motion to Stay Proceedings remains pending, the parties are still required to comply with the Court's Order to Submit Joint Proposed Scheduling Order¹ and for Defendants to answer or otherwise respond on or before the deadline of April 30, 2024, (ECF 76, 78), prior to any ruling by the United States District Judge on that Motion. In light of the recent activity in this case and the current deadlines, the Court will extend Defendants' deadline to answer, or otherwise respond, to Plaintiffs' complaint, as well as the parties' deadline to submit a Joint Proposed Scheduling Order, by 30 days. Defendants' answer, or other pleading, and the parties' Joint Proposed Scheduling Order, are both due on or before May 23, 2024.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ENTERED April 23, 2024.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
